

IRAQ VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR

present:

What the HELL do you know about AFGHANISTAN?

An evening of performances by Chicago artists, scholars and veterans of the Afghanistan and Iraq occupations.

When: March 8th at 8-10PM

Where: The HIDEOUT 1354 W. Wabansia, Chicago

Who: Iraq Veterans Against the War

Donations: 10$ donations at the door (No one turned away)

What: Iraq Veterans Against the War present a series of shorts, improvised skits, talks, stories and performances that dive into how little and how much we know about Afghanistan. Hear from the first hand experience of veterans that who have walked the streets and driven the roads of a country that many of us know little about. And tell us what the "hell" you know about a country we have now occupied for over nine years.

Direct any questions about the event to Aaron Hughes aarhughes@ivaw.org www.ivaw.org